ALLIANCE PROGRAMS

Sponsorships still available for 2008!

(Multiple and/or co-sponsorships available for each program)

Science and Humanities Alliance The Alliance's flagship program, allows the development and dissemination of current and exciting classroom teaching modules. Teachers collaborate with scientists, artists, pharmacists, doctors, engineers, etc. to create teaching modules that infuse their expertise and professional experiences into real concepts that better prepare students for the ever-changing workplace.

Sponsorship based on grants received

Mark Of Distinction (MOD) MOD Grants:

The MOD Program was formed in 1997 to encourage innovative strategies for incorporating career education into classroom lessons. Successful applications demonstrate "out of the box" thinking, originality, and creativity in introducing and reinforcing skills.
